Jewish Committee on Scouting
Cradle of Liberty Council

To the parents of Scouts requesting 2013 Camperships:

Dear Parents,

The Jewish Committee on Scouting of the Cradle of Liberty Council B.S.A. is again proud to be able to sponsor camperships for Jewish Boy Scouts, to help reimburse you for sending your son to Cub/Scout camp this summer. These funds are provided by the Jewish Federation of Greater Philadelphia handling the annual grant from the Sidney Goldberg Endowment Fund.

In order to promote Jewish Scouting and camping year-round, part of the campership reimbursement will be a $20.00 coupon to be used for the upcoming Jewish retreat (Kinnus) in October 2013. The regular cost of the Kinnus (which is already partially subsidized by the JCoS) is only $20.00. By using this coupon, the Scout will be able to attend the Kinnus for no additional cost.

As you may already know, the JCoS receives a restricted donation each year to support Jewish Scouting in the Southeastern region of Pennsylvania. The funds can only be used to support our retreat (Kinnus), Israeli Scouts at summer camp, and Cub/Boy Scouts going to a B.S.A. summer camp.

In order to receive these funds you must send a letter to me by September 3rd 2013 Scout camp, the boys' name, address, troop or pack number, email address, and the with the following information: a receipt showing funds paid to a Scout council or parents name to be on the Campership reimbursement check. The only requirement is that the Scout be of the Jewish faith and be a registered scout in either Bucks, Chester or Cradle of Liberty Scout Councils.

Request received after the September 3rd 2013 date will not be accepted.
